Dear Parents and Carers.

We recognise that transitioning from School onto Post 18 provision can be a daunting and difficult time. In order to make this process as smooth as possible, Ash Lea has put together information that we hope you will find useful. Providers are listed alphabetically, do not indicate any personal or professional endorsement and have been included purely on an informational basis.

Helpful Hints for Year 12:

- Parents to begin to make enquires and make initial visits to preferred post 18 provision.

Helpful Hints for Year 13

Autumn Term:

- Student 'Leavers' meeting will take place to ensure
  1. Any initiated transition plan is on track or initiate transition plan if not already started.
  2. Begin post 18 provision application process if not already done so.
  3. Transition Social Worker should attend this meeting to offer further input and guidance.
  4. Transitions Nurse should also attend to offer health related advice, support and ensure Leaver's medicals are initiated.

Spring /Summer Term.

- School, Home and Transitions Team (Social Worker, Nurse Etc) to work together to.
  1. Ensure any agreed transition plan is on track.
  2. Liaise with relevant professionals to ensure any pre-entry assessment process has taken place.
  3. Arrange taster days and or visits
