

Information will also be available on a range of services, support groups and leisure opportunities for children and young people with additional needs and their families.

Tim Simpson, Project Co-ordinator for the IRIS magazine, will be available to answer specific questions and provide additional information.

And finally... at the end of the day there will be an opportunity to gather information, speak to workshop providers and ask any outstanding questions you may have.

Keynote Speaker: Jill Carter

Pulp Friction

Pulp Friction is a social enterprise established by Jill Carter and her daughter Jessie in 2009.

They work with young adults with learning difficulties and support them to develop independence, social skills and work readiness.

They do this by training young adults to run a range of hospitality and catering services, such as smoothie bike and ice cream tricycle.

A positive example of innovation and entrepreneurial spirit!
