

Art Task

Box Modelling

This week the chosen story and writing activity focuses on animals. Your art task this week is to see what animals you can make out of box modelling. You can use any materials from around the house, recycling is a good place to start.

I would love to see what animals you have chosen. If you can take step-by-step photos to show your creative process that would be great!

Here are some ideas below:

