

Art Task

Make a Story Setting

Around your house find different art materials or recycle objects into a creative story setting.

Using what you know about settings and some of the descriptive words from your writing task make a story setting of your choice. You could even add descriptive labels using the words you have been practising spelling.

