Story Title	1		African Music Yellow
Once Upon a time way out in the desert there were 3 javelinas.	2	Sand (edible sand crushed wheatabix)	Yellow Western Music
The javelinas were wild and hairy, their heads were hair, their backs were hairy, and their bony legs – all the way down to their hard hooves were very hairy. But their snouts were soft and pink	3	Mirrors – identifying the body part Shredded paper	Yellow
The first little Javelina wandered lazily along. He didn't see a storm dust whirling across the desert.	4	Thunder makers	Yellow
The storm left a heap of tumbleweeds. The Javelina said to himself 'I will build a house with them!' In no time at all he did.	5	Dry buckwheat noodles	Travelling music Blue
Along came a coyote. He ran through the desert so quickly and quietly that he was almost invisible. He saw the javelina inside his new home and thought 'Mmm! A tender juicy piggy!'	6	Wolf Mask	Coyote sound
He Called out sweetly, 'Little Pig, Little Pig, let me come in.'	7	Balloons Fans Cups to make galloping sound	Breeze sound Yellow

'Not on the hair of my chinny, chin, chin.' The coyote said 'Then I'll huff, and I'll puff, and I'll blow your house in!' As the house collapsed the Javelina escaped.
The 2nd javelina walked amongst tall cactus called saguaros (sa-Wa-ros). He came across a native American woman who was collecting the sticks from the dried up cactus. The second javelina asked the woman if he could have some to build a house with. The native American Woman said 'Ha'u' which means yes.	8	sticks	Howling Wind Blue
