

Burns night

Robert Burns

- Burns night is the celebration of the Scottish poet Robert Burns.
- This is held on the 25th January on Robert Burns' birthday
- People pay tribute to the poet by having a Burns supper. This includes reciting some of his poems and having a feast including haggis, neeps and tatties and maybe even some whisky! People dress up in Kilts and wear tartan patterned clothing.

Poem

- <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=4i2YWdz9ruk>

A few videos

- Find some information about Burns night here
- <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=f0Y3DdFRllg>
- Can you relax to this Scottish music?
- <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=QK9WK0QhejA&list=PLYnYL7fCzFk9v1G-dgxFHf4aGbEr7dsGM>

Activities

- Can you find any tartan material in your house?
- Can you make a Scottish flag? What colours do you need? Use some pencils to mark make or stick some tissue paper or materials onto it.
- Can you use a potato to print a pattern onto the page? Make some mash and explore this for a messy play activity.
- Can you choose what you would eat for burns night? Use the symbols page to choose what you would eat, can you make it into a menu?

