

THE SECRET LIFE OF PETS

Secret Life of Pets

Hi, my name is Mac. I'm the luckiest dog in the whole world. I live in New York City with my owner, Katie. She's the greatest. Katie and I have a love stronger than words... or even shoes. (And Katie has great taste in shoes!) It's me and Katie, Katie and me. Us against the world.

The only problem is that almost every day she leaves... but it's not so bad because I have other friends who live in the building. They're pets like me.

Gidget is my Pomeranian neighbour. Every day she asks me what my plans are and I always tell her I'm going to sit and wait for Katie. Gidget thinks my life is very exciting.

Chloe is a big grey cat that lives in my building. She's mostly interested in food and can't always be bothered to give advice. As soon as her owner leaves for the day she... EATS! (Perhaps a little too much).

Sweetpea is a bird who lives to dream big. When his owner is away Sweetpea flies into the DANGER ZONE!

Mel is a pug. He has a problem with squirrels. He barks to let them know to stay away... this is his territory!

Leonard is a poodle. He may act reserved when his owner is around... but once he leaves, Leonard likes to let loose and head bang to his heavy metal music.

My buddy, Buddy is a dachshund who loves being massaged so much that he's found a clever way to work out the kinks in his long back even when his owner isn't home.

Up there is poor, loveable Norman the guinea pig. He's always getting lost in the vents trying to find his way back to his apartment.

And then there's Pops. Don't worry about the wheels... this old basset hound gets along fine. Since his owner is near home, everyone likes to hang out at Pop's place.

Yup. My life is perfect. I get to spend with my friends, and then it's my favourite part of the day... when Katie comes home and it's just the two of us again.

Hey, here's Katie now!

And she's brought me something. She's so great!
