

St David's day

1st March

What is it?

- ▶ A day to celebrate welsh heritage and culture
- ▶ Also known as Feast of Saint David as families and friends come together to celebrate and feast on welsh food
- ▶ Parades happen in lots of different towns and cities over Wales, flags are flown and the national anthem is sung

What do people do to celebrate?

- ▶ People dress up in traditional welsh clothing and pin a daffodil or leek to their lapel
- ▶ They make and eat welsh cakes, cawl, Welsh rarebit and lots of other tasty treats!

Activity

- ▶ Can you dip a leek into paint and see what prints you can make on the paper?
- ▶ Can you listen to some different Welsh poems?
- ▶ Can you try some Welsh food?
